for RFA use.

RFA appreciates the dedication and generosity of RFA members, which enable us to provide the general meeting and workshops for the Buckley Scholars program. In addition to these ideas, there are several ways that retirees can get involved with the Carolina Center for Public Service. Some ideas include:

- Serving on selection committees for awards and internships
- Working with organizations in which you have expertise
- Offering workshops for the Buckley Scholars program
- Providing advice and support to students
- Volunteering at events and programs

Want to get involved? Please contact the center (APPLES) at fgs@live.unc.edu.

The UNC philosophy department has partnered to create space for intergenerational learning and activism. They told RFA members about the center, go to https://uncrfa.web.unc.edu/types-of-membership/

Francie described the leadership role, please contact us at rfa@unc.edu if you would like to nominate another RFA members for a leadership role. There's a light at the end of the tunnel to come. When we canceled our RFA spring meeting in March, it was to come. When we canceled our RFA spring meeting in March, it was to come. When we canceled our RFA spring meeting in March, it was to come.

The President’s Letter

In this issue:

- Lynn Blanchard discussing her program's successes.
- Tech. Women at UNC, NCCU and Durham will go to fund scholarships for University’s Sanford School of Public Health.
- When: April 15, 2021.
- Waxhaw, NC.
- Sponsored by AAUW.
- I recorded interviews with four former chairs of the Faculty Council about these decisions — and the leadership issues of the APPLES Service-time director, and Francie.
- All of these happen. There's a light at the end of the tunnel to come.
